Easter Traditions - Blessing of the Easter Foods
In Slavic countries the blessing of the Easter foods was an important tradition on Holy Saturday. The food is then taken home and eaten for breakfast on Easter Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Food items include hard boiled eggs, dyed or plain, Pascha (a special Easter bread) and lamb meat (which of course signifies Jesus, the Lamb of God.)
So at Noon on Holy Saturday, March 31st, bring your food baskets to the church and the priests will bless them.

What to do with your Old Palm Branches?
According to Canon Law, blessed items are to be treated with respect. Most sacramentals, like palm branches, can be burned or buried in order to dispose of them. They can also be placed in a garden close to the home so they are not trampled upon. This type of disposal honors the sacred purpose and returns them to the earth in a dignified way.
You do not need to be a clergy member to do this.

THE KURT RUSSMANN PINES CAMP SCHOLARSHIP

The Kurt Russmann Pines Camp Scholarship forms are available online and in the pastoral office. The Pines Catholic camp will celebrate its 30th year this summer! It is dedicated to providing an exciting and spiritual summer camp experience for the youth of our Diocese. The Kurt Russmann Pines Camp Scholarship was started in memory of Kurt Russmann by his family and supplemented by donations from the family of Dr. Larry Hines. Both men were very active in the youth in our area. This scholarship will be awarded on the basis of financial need, and will be subject to funds available. Recipients must be member of St. Jude Catholic Church. Recipients must also have filled out an application with the Pines Catholic Camp - the scholarship form DOES NOT register you with the camp. The scholarship is in the amount of $500. The remaining balance for the camp will be the responsibility of the applicant. Scholarship checks will be made payable to The Pines Catholic Camp. Please submit the form to business office at St. Jude – Attn: Rose Tuck by Monday, March 26th. Recipients of this scholarship will receive notification via phone call from the St. Jude Business Office by April 3, 2018.
